

January 2018

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 Day 1 - What will be your New Year #resolution for school?	2 Day 2 - What is one article you plan to read and share in the New Year?	3 Day 3 - Get out of your office in the morning. Tweet a picture of students returning to see friends and teacher. #welcomeback	4 Day 4 - Observe and drop in lesson and tweet to share with @AISGWtweets - either a photo or positive observation.	5 Day 5 - Share something in your day that highlights your School's #mission	6 Day 6 - Reading anything good in the New Year? Tweet a #shelfie and tag the authors
7 Day 7 - What are you doing this weekend to #restore	8 Day 8 - Remember someone you met at the #AISGW Division Directors Breakfast? Find them on twitter or remind them to set it up	9 Day 9 - Something on your mind that you is served better by shared perspective? Tweet a question and include two hashtags.	10 Day 10 - Spend some time with the folks you're following. Authors, industry experts, suggestions, contacts, etc. Add three new people or three "near-peer" schools	11 Day 11 - Broaden that network of connection. Follow @NAISNetwork @isminc @HarvardBiz (tweet at them for bonus points)	12 Day 12 - Use a hashtag. Example: Anyone considering a new #student #schedule for 2018-19? OR We love #firstgrade	13 Day 13 - Find a #satchat with someone like @bradmcurrie and join the conversation for a bit
14 Day 14 - See anything worth sharing? Retweet someone else's tweet if it resonates with you	15 Day 15 - Join a webinar and tweet at the facilitator or share with a friend on twitter	16 Day 16 - Any teachers doing #PD this month? If so, tweet about their work and tag the affiliated organization (e.g. @officialNGSS @responsiveclass)	17 Day 17 - Read something germane to your school or to your work from @Edutopia and share it out	18 Day 18 - Inspired by someone? Find them on twitter - @Lin_Manuel @Pontifex @BillNye @DalaiLama @johnmaeda @sirkenrobinson	19 Day 19 - Follow two expert Twitter folks @web20classroom and @Alex_Corbitt - consider asking them for help as you grow your twitter presence	20 Day 20 - Spend 10 minutes reading twitter for news or insights. Then, head outside and enjoy the day; there's more to life than tweets
21 Day 21 - Have you made #AISGW connections on twitter? Reply to a tweet from someone in this cohort; start a conversation	22 Day 22 - How do your students demonstrate #generosity or #gratitude? Share that #grateful with a photo or description	23 Day 23 - Read and tweet something by @LDamour @RachelJSimmon @MGThompsonPHD - all industry experts on single-gender education	24 Day 24 - Find a graphic that you like (photo, graph, image, cartoon, etc) and share it with context	25 Day 25 - Do you have a "go to" news source? Follow it on twitter and share an article	26 Day 26 - Tweet at #edchat to discuss something from current teaching trends, technology, or to simply connect with inspiring educators worldwide	27 Day 27 - Take a #poll on your own twitter. How can you use twitter to obtain feedback on a topic?
28 Day 28 - See anything you like? Like three articles, comments, tweets, etc. from others in your network	29 Day 29 - Watch a Ted Talk and tweet your favorite quote @TEDx to share	30 Day 30 - Find out what's happening with @SmithsonianEdu and @ngadc - anything worth tweeting to share?	31 Day 31 - Tweet @StoneRidgePD or @corie_fogg and @AISGWtweets to celebrate a month of using your new #twitter #30day challenge			