

Winter/Spring 2019 Programs – Monthly At-a-Glance (As of January 14, 2019)

January

Emerging Leaders Institute (January 16th-May 15th, Various locations) -- Nine-session cohort program for aspiring leaders

Female Administrators Affinity Group Launch Breakfast (January 15th, Stone Ridge) – First meeting of new affinity group to connect, support and affirm non-head female administrators; RESCHEDULED FOR FEBRUARY 20TH

AISGW@AU Open House (January 23rd, American University) – “Meet and greet” event for members of AISGW schools who are interested in pursuing master degree programs through American University’s School of Education using the special AISGW tuition discount

Ethics Roundtables (January 24th, Grace Episcopal Day School) -- Facilitated discussion on ethical leadership led by the Center for Spiritual and Ethical Education and co-sponsored by AISGW

Diversity Practitioners Listening Session (January 29th, National Cathedral School) – Opportunity for AISGW diversity experts to share their thoughts about how the association can support diversity, equity and inclusion priorities in our schools; RESCHEDULED FOR MARCH 5TH

February

Business Officers Coffee (Feb. 1st, Holton-Arms School) -- Networking coffee for business officers from AISGW schools large and small

“Shop Talk” Roundtables (Feb. 13th, National Presbyterian School) -- Informal roundtable discussion opportunities for various AISGW constituencies including learning specialists, directors of summer programs, extended day directors, school archivists, human resources officers, international program coordinators, nurses and others

March

Teacher Mentoring Workshop (March 7th, Langley School) -- Learning opportunity for senior academic leaders responsible for developing, mentoring and evaluating new teachers; workshop leader – Jamie Segraves, St. Stephens & St. Agnes School

April

Risk Management Symposium (April 18th, Georgetown Preparatory School) -- Comprehensive program for Heads of School, CFOs, academic leaders and others offering information and advice from a range of experts about assessing and managing risk; featured speakers – RCM&D, Caryn Pass, Esq., Mark Rasch, Esq. and more to come!

Spring Development Gathering (April 23rd, Holton-Arms School) -- Semi-annual opportunity for advancement professionals to network and learn together; featured speaker – Wendy McGrady, fundraising consultant

Annual Business Meeting (April 24th, St. John’s College High School) -- Year-end gathering of Heads of School including keynote remarks on a topic of interest, discussion of Association business, and testimonials and farewells to departing Heads; featured speaker – Leslie Crutchfield, author of How Change Happens

May

Spring Admissions Gathering (May 10th, location TBD) -- Semi-annual opportunity for advancement professionals to network and learn together; featured speaker – Greg Bamford, school leader, consultant, founder of Leadership+Design

Division Leaders Lunch (Date and location, TBD) -- Year-end networking lunch for AISGW division leaders